

TIME

Style & Design

THE DESIGN 100

THE PEOPLE AND IDEAS BEHIND
TODAY'S MOST INFLUENTIAL DESIGN

JEAN-PHILIPPE DELHOMME - COURTESY OF THE MARK

Hotels From the reinvention of a New York classic to the floating Manned Cloud blimp, the hospitality industry is a locus of new design

The Mark • New York City

French decorator to royalty, society and celebrity, Jacques Grange has turned his sophisticated eye on one of New York's favorite Upper East Side haunts. Enlisting artists and artisans like Eric Schmitt, Vladimir Kagan and Paul Mathieu, Grange has created an intimate design that will be both hotel and residence. Services include a Frédéric Fekkai salon and a Sant Ambroeus restaurant. —By Kate Betts