

December 4, 2013

The Mark Hotel and Bergdorf Goodman Bring Holiday Luxury

Holiday shopping can be stressful and ugly, and once the snow hits the ground in New York it becomes downright dreadful. Bergdorf Goodman and The Mark Hotel teamed up to bring the ultimate shopping experience.

Beginning December 5th and running through January, when you book a special package with a minimum two-night stay at the hotel, The Mark (pictured above) will include a gift card towards any purchase at Bergdorf Goodman, the choice of a stylist consultation or beauty makeover by appointment, complimentary transportation to Bergdorf Goodman via the hotel courtesy car, complimentary messenger service of purchases from the store back to the hotel, a bottle of Billecart Salmon Champagne in-room upon arrival, and daily breakfast for two at The Mark Restaurant by Jean-Georges. For those visiting it offers all the luxury behind the names Bergdorf Goodman, The Mark Hotel, and New York. For those who live in the city and close by it's incentive to make the holidays feel truly special by checking in to the hotel for a few days and letting someone else do all the preparations.

A stay at The Mark continuously offers luxury experiences including in-cuisine by Jean-Georges Vongerichten, design by Jacques Grange, hair styling by Frederic Fekkai, a classic shoe shine by John Lobb, private sessions with top trainers in the Fitness Center and so much more. The Mark Hotel is known for being the hotel of choice for guests attending the annual Met Gala, including Anna Wintour, Carine Roitfeld, Cara Delevingne, Katie Holmes, Sienna Miller and Jennifer Lopez.